Traditional Japanese farmhouse made in the Edo period

At this traditional Japanese farmhouse you will be able to experience living in Japanese rural areas. Experience farm work in the rice fields, playing in a river or mountains and, at night, surround the irori hearth to relish seasonal vegetables and fish. Also you can try "houtou" a local Yamanashi cuisine. We have a shower room but nearby is hot springs or you can try bathing in an outdoor Goemonburo which is a metal tub heated with a fire. Try your hands at cutting firewood, building a fire or making rice on a kamado stove. You can learn to make your own fire for your kamado stove, wash and cook your rice. While children and adults in the city are used to the convenience of cooking rice at the push of a button, we will carefully support the process as you take the time to make food on your own!

Activities: Harvesting rice fields or vegetables. Cut bamboo at a nearby bamboo forest to make your own chute for flow somen noodles. Cutting wood, making charcoal, participate in local festivities and interact with local Tsugane villagers. Please ask about the extra fees for each activity when making a reservation.
