Accommodations bringing you close to nature

The Kurohime Highlands is overflowing with nature, with its 33,000 square meters of clear streams and lush forest. You will be surrounded by nature, at Hotel Wakatsuki, you can relish special seasonal meals made from local ingredients. One of the attractions is to eat the fish freshly caught in the hotel's fishing preserve and cooked deep fried. At Hotel Wakatsuki, you can also come for a day trip without the overnight stay. Enjoy relaxing and enjoy the pleasant Shinshu breeze. The owner of the hotel is Shinichi Wakatsuki, a former All Japan National Ski Demonstrator.

Shinshu salmon and Kirishita Buckwheat soba noodles

Inheriting the good points of both rainbow trout and brown trout, it is an irresistible gem that melts in your mouth. The Shinshu salmon is an all-female sterile triploid. In addition, the buckwheat is cultivated in the plateau area (area with mist) at the foot of the mountain where the temperature difference between day and night is large and morning fog is likely to occur. Buckwheat is vulnerable to frost, but it is said that good quality buckwheat can be produced here under natural conditions where frost is likely to occur.

One-day Activities (extra fees apply)

There is a walking course where you can easily take in nature's pleasures on the vast site. When the forests are green, you can take a nature walk while enjoying the breeze of the plateau and the nature of Shinshu. Find yourself a resting spot where you can read a book. In addition, you have a barbeque, catch river fish in the clear stream of Kurohime, rainbow trout fishing and rock fishing in the fishing pond and cage in front of the inn. Smoke your catch (about 2 hours), camping and so on. (Please ask about the additional charges)
