The largest number of shellfish in Japan

There is "Minshuku Maruni Maru" and "Ryokan Maruni Maru". The staff here give their guests space and excuse themselves after they teach you how to cook. They want you to spend a relaxing time in a quiet inn, away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Enjoy the fresh seafood and lay back and relax like it's your own home. Relax with the feeling of returning to your hometown while enjoying the fresh seafood. The number of shellfish is supposed to be the largest in Japan and sea urchins are available all year round for dining.

You can experience fishing, sea urchin splitting, basket fishing, and how to handle spiny lobster. * A separate experience fee is required.
